Postgraduate Medicine is a peer-reviewed medical journal published for physicians and is a partner of the PAINWeek Live Virtual Conference. Tracing its roots back to 1916, Postgraduate Medicine, was established as a peer-to-peer method of communicating the latest research to aid physicians when making treatment decisions, and it maintains that aim to this day. In addition to its core subscriber base, Postgraduate Medicine is distributed to hundreds of physicians within internal medicine and family practice across the US.

Contact Taylor & Francis Internal Editor Mike Gregg at Mike.gregg@tandf.co.uk for more information including pre-submission guidance and queries.
