► Please Note

Exhibitors should look into their business insurance policies for exhibition coverage. Their main broker or agent will be able to advise if this coverage is in place. If it is, this coverage through R&W is not required. Their main broker or agent can issue a certificate of insurance for them with all of the conference details (date, place, exhibition name) on it and submit it to CCC Secretariat. Their main broker or agent may not charge for the certificate. If they do not have a policy in place, where exhibition coverage is in place they can by all means still get the coverage through the conference.
