

Become educated, equipped, and empowered with NURSES UNITED AGAINST HUMAN TRAFFICKING, P.A. (NUAHT)

NUAHT is a professional association that was founded by 2 nurses to raise awareness and comprehensively educate all healthcare professionals, law enforcement officers (LEOs), advocates, lawyers, judges, faith-based leaders, teachers, guidance counselors, and parents on anti-trafficking measures.

The NUAHT Anti-Human Trafficking Curriculum:

- Has been developed by subject matter experts (SMEs) and sexual assault nurse examiners who have worked alongside DHS, and a lived-experience survivor of childhood sex trafficking
- Is unparalleled to any other anti-trafficking training out there
- Has been peer-reviewed by other SMEs in the anti-trafficking space
- Has been tested with efficacy findings on post-test at the  $p < .001$  level
- Is deemed an Approved Human Trafficking Course for Health Care Practitioners by Texas HHS
- Is approved by the ANCC and the ACCME to award learners 9.0 contact hours/CMEs upon successful completion of the curriculum
- The HUMAN TRAFFICKING AND EXPLOTATION: A LAW ENFORCEMENT PERSPECTIVE, specifically designed for LEOs, was created and narrated by Det. Randall Snyder, MA, a SME who worked in this field with investigations spanning 33 states and 8 countries on 3 continents
